School News

I usually spend lunchtime in the hall with the children; helping to cut up food, pouring water, chatting to the children, opening yoghurts without getting covered in it (not easy) and making sure everyone is eating. The children always appear very happy and enjoy sharing the dinner table experience with their friends and children from other year groups. Jackie our school cook has organised year 5 pupils to act as "Condover Bistro Buddies" They have a rota and when it is their turn they get to have lunch first and wear a special "Bistro Buddy" t shirt. After that they assist the adults in the hall by doing the same sort of tasks as mentioned above. In addition they give out stickers to children who have eaten all of their dinner. This is what some of them said about their new role... "I like helping younger children it gives me a happy feeling." "I like contributing to the life of the school." "I like to make sure everyone can eat their dinner." Jackie has also made some bright interesting information sheets for the children to read about the different food groups. As a school we work hard to provide healthy balanced meals and educate the children on how to eat healthily for life. Well done Bistro Buddies and Jackie, you are doing a great job.

Dear parents,

I am looking to reinstate the old sewing group that used to meet at school a couple of years ago, under the supervision of Mrs Cowley.

We were a very friendly group that met once a week to work on our sewing/knitting/crochet projects and have a natter whilst we worked. I am proposing meeting at my house on a fortnightly basis. I can fit up to 12 people around my dining room table, possibly a couple more if they aren't using sewing machines! I do also have two spare sewing machines that people can use, plus an overlocker, and extension leads.

There won't be any charge for the group – it's more of a social thing really – but feel free to bring cake!

So if you want to come and do some crafting then please get in touch! It doesn't matter if you are only just starting out in sewing, we all started somewhere!

My number is 07974 307940 or email is smee1103@gmail.com

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

Sam Kimber (Ellie and Tabby's mum)
